Vanguard Global Short-Term Corporate Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Corporate 1–5 Year Float Adjusted Index, a market-weighted index of global corporate fixed income investments with maturities of between 1 and 5 years.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept its target for short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned 7.27% for the six months, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in US dollars on an unhedged basis. The decline of the US dollar boosted returns for non-US bonds in particular.
- The fund's benchmark, which is hedged to the US dollar, returned 3.59% for the period.
- By country, the United States, which has the largest weighting in the index, performed better than the index as a whole. Other index heavyweights, including China, Ireland and South Korea, outperformed. Italy and Spain were among the laggards but still returned more than 3.3%.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions returned a little more than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- From a credit-quality perspective, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder performed better than their higher-rated counterparts.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard Japan Government Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Investments Australia Ltd.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Japan Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index designed to reflect the total universe of Japanese Yen-denominated treasury and Japan government-related securities with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%. The Bank of Japan, on the other hand, continued its monetary policy tightening in an effort to fight inflation. After raising the policy rate by 25 basis points in January, to 0.50%, the central bank held the rate steady because of trade policy uncertainty.
- While global bonds generally posted gains for the six months, Japanese government bonds lost market value.
- The fund's benchmark index returned –3.73%. Within the benchmark, bonds with the longest maturities declined the most.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in Japanese yen.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard Selected Screened Euro Investment Grade Bond Index Fund (formerly Vanguard SRI Euro Investment Grade Bond Index Fund)

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg EUR Non-Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index of euro-denominated investment-grade fixed income securities with maturities greater than 1 year and a minimum issue size of EUR 300 million, but excluding certain sectors as defined by the Index provider, the details of which are set out below. The Index includes securities issued by corporate, securitised, and government-related/supranational issuers (including issuers such as the European Union), but excludes treasury and government related issuers from euro zone countries.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds posted gains for the six months on a hedged basis.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 1.31%.
- Corporate bonds, which accounted for more than half of the index, outperformed the index as a whole. Within corporates, financial institutions led, followed by positive performance from utilities and industrials. Securitised bonds also outperformed the index while non-corporates lagged.
- Among the larger constituents, supranationals and the United States underperformed the benchmark. France and Germany outperformed.
- By credit quality and maturity, bonds with the lowest rating and shortest duration performed best.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.K. Government Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg U.K. Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index designed to reflect the total universe of pound sterling-denominated UK treasury and government-related securities with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds posted gains for the six months on a hedged basis.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 2.45%. Within the benchmark, bonds in the 1- to 5-year maturity range performed best, while those with the longest maturities (of 30 years or more) had a modestly negative return. By credit quality, results were mixed, with bonds at the highest and lowest rungs of the credit ratings ladder outperforming those in the middle.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.K. Investment Grade Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg GBP Non-Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index of pound sterling-denominated, investment-grade fixed income securities with maturities greater than 1 year and a minimum issue size of GBP 200 million, but excluding certain sectors as set out below. The Index includes securities issued by corporate, securitised, and government-related/supranational entities, including non-UK governments who issue securities in pound sterling, but excludes UK Treasury, UK agency and UK local authority issuers.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds posted gains for the six months on a hedged basis.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 3.45%. Within the benchmark, bonds in the 5- to 10-year maturity range posted the highest returns, while those with the longest maturities only eked out a positive return. By credit quality, lowest-rated bonds performed best. Returns were roughly equal across sectors, with securitised bonds posting the highest returns.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.K. Short-Term Gilt Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to track the performance of the Bloomberg UK Gilt 1-5Yr Float Adjusted Index.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds posted gains for the six months on a hedged basis. In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 3.37%.
- Since its inception on 12 June 2025, the fund was roughly on track with the 0.30% return of its benchmark over the 18-day period.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.K. Short-Term Investment Grade Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg GBP Non-Government 1–5 Year 200MM Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index of pound sterling-denominated, investment-grade fixed income securities with maturities between 1 and 5 years and a minimum issue size of GBP 200 million, but excluding certain sectors as set out below. The Index includes securities issued by corporate, securitised, and government-related/supranational entities, including non-UK governments who issue securities in pound sterling, but excludes UK Treasury, UK agency and UK local authority issuers.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds posted gains for the six months on a currency-hedged basis.
- The fund's benchmark returned 3.56%. Within the benchmark, the lower the credit rating, the higher the returns. By sector, securitised bonds posted the highest returns.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.S. Government Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg U.S. Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index designed to reflect the total universe of US Dollar-denominated US Treasury and US government-related securities with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned 7.27% for the six months, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in US dollars on an unhedged basis. The decline of the US dollar boosted returns for non-US bonds in particular.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 3.79% for the six months.
- Within the benchmark, bonds with maturities of 5 to 10 years had the highest returns, while those with the longest maturities had the lowest returns, though still positive. By sector, agency bonds modestly outpaced Treasuries.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.S. Investment Grade Credit Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Global Aggregate USD Credit Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index of US Dollar-denominated, investment-grade fixed income securities with maturities greater than 1 year and a minimum issue size of $300 million, but excluding certain sectors as set out below. The Index includes securities issued by global corporates, securitised, and government-related/supranational entities, but excludes U.S. Treasuries and certain securitised sectors and issues as defined by the Index provider.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned 7.27% for the six months, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in US dollars on an unhedged basis. The decline of the US dollar boosted returns for non-US bonds in particular.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 4.24% for the six months.
- Within the benchmark, bonds with maturities of 5 to 10 years had the highest returns, while those with the longest maturities had the lowest returns, though still positive. Bonds with the lowest credit ratings had the highest returns, but all tiers posted gains. Gains were roughly on par across sectors.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.S. Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

This fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg U.S. Government Inflation-Linked 1–10 Year Index, a market-weighted index designed to measure the performance of US Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities ("TIPS") with maturities between 1 and 10 years.

Performance Summary

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the six months ended 30 June 2025, global financial markets were largely influenced by shifts in trade policy, a decline in the US dollar and more expansive fiscal policy in Europe.
- Early in the period, optimism in the US about the prospect of further deregulation, tax cuts and robust corporate earnings was at times tempered by market concerns about interest rates, stretched equity valuations and the potential inflationary impact of tariffs. European equities posted a strong first quarter, supported by more attractive valuations, a dovish central bank policy path and the passage of a stimulative fiscal package in Germany. Although the second quarter began with a spike in volatility triggered by the US announcing an array of tariffs, global equity markets went on to show resilience.
- With inflation still running above target and continued uncertainty about tariff impacts, the US Federal Reserve kept short-term interest rates at 4.25%–4.50%. Meanwhile, policymakers in Europe adopted a more accommodative monetary stance: The European Central Bank cut its primary policy interest rate four times, to 2.0%, during the first half of the year, and the Bank of England trimmed the Bank Rate twice, to 4.25%.
- Global bonds returned 7.27% for the six months, as measured by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index in US dollars on an unhedged basis. The decline of the US dollar boosted returns for non-US bonds in particular.
- Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities fared better than their nominal peers. The fund's benchmark index returned 5.01% for the six months.
- Within the benchmark, longer-duration bonds posted higher returns than shorter-duration bonds.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <http://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the period. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the period and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the period is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

2. Basis of Presentation.

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland, including Financial Reporting Standard (“FRS”) 104, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland issued by the Financial Reporting Council (the “FRC”), the UCITS Regulations, the CBI UCITS Regulations and the Listing Rules of the Euronext Dublin.

To more appropriately reflect the Company’s business as an investment fund, the Company has determined that the headings and sub-headings of the financial statements require adaptation from the requirements in the Companies Act 2014 and certain wordings and format of the financial statements have been adapted from those contained in FRS 102, Section 3.

A Cash Flow Statement has not been presented due to the exemption contained in FRS 102, Section 7.1A.

The information required by FRS 102 to be included in a statement of comprehensive income is contained in the Statement of Operations of each Fund and the Company.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, subject to the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”).

3. Significant Accounting Policies.

The unaudited financial statements should be read in conjunction with the relevant Fund’s annual audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024. There have been no changes to the significant accounting policies adopted by the Funds since the last audited period, and the accounting policies have been consistently applied to all periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

4. Risk Management Policies.

The Funds’ activities, investments in financial instruments and the markets it invests in create a direct exposure to a variety of risks such as market risk (including price risk, interest rate risk and currency risk), liquidity risk and credit risk. The Funds may also invest in financial derivative instruments which may expose the Funds to a higher degree of risks, particularly, financial derivative instruments contracts can be highly volatile, and a relatively small market movement may have a potentially larger impact.

Significant market disruptions, such as those caused by pandemics, natural or environmental disasters, war, acts of terrorism, political or regulatory conditions, or other events, can adversely affect local and global markets and normal market operations. Any such disruptions could have an adverse impact on the value of the Funds’ investments and Funds’ performance.

The Manager seeks to minimise potential adverse effects of risk on the Funds’ performance by employing professional, experienced portfolio managers; by daily monitoring of the Funds’ positions and market events; by diversifying the investment portfolio within the constraints of the investment objectives; and by periodically using derivatives to economically hedge certain risk exposures.

Each Fund’s financial risk management objectives and policies continue to be substantially consistent with the previous annual audited financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2024.

5. Taxation.

Under current law and practice, the Company qualifies as an investment undertaking as defined in Section 739B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997, as amended. On that basis, it is not chargeable to Irish tax on its income or gains.

However, Irish tax may arise on the happening of a “chargeable event”. A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to shareholders, any encashment, redemption, cancellation or transfer of shares and the holding of shares at the end of each eight year period beginning with the acquisition of such shares. Any tax arising on a chargeable event is a liability of the shareholders, albeit it is paid by the Company (although if the Company fails to deduct the correct amount of tax it becomes ultimately a liability of the Company).

No Irish tax will arise on the Company in respect of chargeable events:

- (a) a shareholder who is neither Irish resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes, at the time of the chargeable event, provided appropriate valid declarations in accordance with the provisions of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997, as amended, are held by the Company or the Company has been authorised by the Irish Revenue to make gross payments in the absence of appropriate declarations;
- (b) certain exempted Irish tax resident shareholders who have provided the necessary signed statutory declarations; and
- (c) any transaction in relation to, or in respect of, units which are held in an a recognised clearing system as designated by order of the Irish Revenue Commissioners.

Dividends, interest and capital gains received on investments may be subject to withholding or other taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received, and such taxes may not be recoverable. Foreign withholding taxes on dividends and interest are recognised when such taxes are not recoverable and are included in Taxation. Funds may also be subject to tax on realised and unrealised capital gains and has recognised a provision for deferred tax payable arising from material timing differences between the taxation of unrealised gains in the financial statements and actual realisable taxable profits.

The Funds have filed tax reclaims for previously withheld taxes on dividends earned in certain European Union countries. These filings are subject to various administrative and judicial proceedings within these countries. Such tax reclaims recognised during the period, if any, are included in Taxation. No other amounts for these tax reclaims are reflected in the financial statements due to the uncertainty as to the ultimate resolution of proceedings, the likelihood of receipt of these reclaims and the potential timing of payment.

The Directors may issue shares of any class and create new classes of shares on such terms as the Directors may from time to time determine in relation to any Fund and in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. Shares may be divided into different classes to accommodate different subscription, redemption or fee arrangements, dividend provisions, or charges.

Subscriber Shares. There are two Subscriber Shares in issue, which are held by nominees for the Investment Managers. Subscriber Shares do not entitle the holders thereof to any dividend and on a winding-up entitle the holder to receive the amount paid up thereon but not otherwise to participate in the assets of the Company. The Subscriber Shares do not form part of the Shareholders' funds and are not included in the net asset value of the Company.

Redeemable Participating Shares. Members who are individuals may attend and vote at general meetings in person or by proxy. Members who are corporations may attend and vote at general meetings by appointing a representative or proxy. Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may be issued or may for the time being be held, at any general meeting on a show of hands every shareholder who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by duly authorised representative shall have one vote. On a poll every such holder presents as aforesaid or by proxy shall have one vote for every share held.

If the Company shall be wound up, then the payment to the holders of the redeemable participating shares of each class, is a sum in the currency in which that class is designated, as nearly as possible equal to the Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares respectively. This payment is as at the date of commencement to wind up provided that there are sufficient assets available in the relevant Fund to enable such payment to be made. In the event that there are insufficient assets available in the relevant Fund to enable such payments to be made, the following recourse shall apply:

- (1) the assets of the Company not comprised within any of the Funds; and
- (2) the assets remaining in the Funds for the other classes of Shares after payment to the holders of the Shares of the class to which they relate of the amounts to which they are respectively entitled under this paragraph prorata to the total value of such assets remaining within each such Fund.

9. Credit Facility.

The Funds and certain other funds managed by the Manager and its affiliates participate in an annually renewable US$4.3 billion (2024: US$4.3 billion) committed credit facility. Each participating Fund is individually liable for its borrowings under the credit facility. Borrowings may be utilised for temporary or emergency purposes and are subject to the participating Fund's regulatory and contractual borrowing restrictions. Participating Funds are allocated an annual commitment fee of 0.10% of the undrawn facility amount as well as certain administrative fees. Any fees allocated to the Funds are paid by the Manager. Interest and direct borrowing costs associated with draws on the credit facility are charged to the Funds and recorded in the Statement of Operations.

The rate charged for borrowings under this facility is linked to the currency borrowed. Borrowings in US dollars will bear interest at an agreed-upon spread plus the higher of the federal funds effective rate, the overnight bank funding rate or the Daily Simple Secured Overnight Financing Rate inclusive of an additional agreed-upon spread. Borrowings in currencies other than the US dollar will bear interest at an agreed-upon spread plus the Euro Interbank Offered Rate, the Daily Simple Euro Short Term Rate, the Swiss Average Rate Overnight, the Sterling Overnight Index Average or the Tokyo Interbank Offered Rate, as applicable.

The Credit Facility agreement was renewed in March 2025. As the U.K. Short-Term Gilt Index Fund was launched after this date, it was not included under the terms of the renewed agreement.

The Funds had no borrowings outstanding at 30 June 2025 or at any time during the period then ended (31 December 2024: none).

10. Efficient Portfolio Management.

Investment techniques and financial derivative instruments ("FDIs") may be employed for efficient portfolio management purposes, including hedging against market movements, currency exchange or interest rate risks. Any investment technique or use of FDIs must be one which is reasonably believed by the Investment Managers to be economically appropriate in that it is realised in a cost-effective way. Realised and unrealised gains or losses arising from financial derivative instrument transactions are accounted for through the Statement of Operations as Net Gain/(Loss) on Financial Instruments.

Securities lending is also used for efficient portfolio management. The securities lending agent is J.P. Morgan SE - Luxembourg Branch. All operational costs in support of the lending programme are borne by the lending agent and paid directly out of any lending agent fees. Securities lending income is net of any lending agent fees paid.

Securities on loan continue to be recognised by the Funds as financial assets because they substantially retain the risks and rewards of ownership. Similarly, security collateral received from the borrower is not recognised by the Funds as an asset because they do not have rights to sell or re-pledge the collateral, unless in the event of default. Collateral accepted by the Funds is limited to high quality sovereign debt (U.S. Treasuries, U.K. Gilts, etc.).

11. Collateral.

The Funds pledge and receive non-cash collateral against financial derivative instruments and TBA transactions. Such collateral cannot be sold, re-invested or re-pledged. As a result, pledged collateral remains an asset of the Fund and is included in the Statement of Investments. Securities received as collateral are not considered assets of the Fund and will not appear in the Statement of Investments. Under these collateral agreements, upon a counterparty default (including bankruptcy), the Funds may terminate all derivatives or TBA transactions with that counterparty, determine the net amount owed by either party and sell or retain any collateral held up to the net amount owed to the Funds, with an obligation to return excess collateral to the counterparty.

In certain cases, the Funds may be required to maintain cash collateral in margin accounts or pledge cash with certain counterparties. Cash collateral held in margin accounts for futures contracts and other centrally cleared derivatives is segregated on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and presented separately as part of "Margin Cash Due to/from Broker". Cash pledged for OTC derivative instruments and TBAs is segregated on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and presented separately as "Cash Collateral". Additionally, the Funds may receive cash collateral, which is segregated from the Funds' cash, and is subject to restrictions. The Funds do not earn any interest from the cash collateral received nor does it have any right for re-investment, therefore any cash collateral received is not recorded as part of the Funds' assets.

At 30 June 2025, the Funds did not have any collateral pledged or received in connection with TBA transactions (31 December 2024: Nil).

In addition, the Funds receive other non-cash collateral in relation to securities lending transactions which is separately disclosed in Note 10.

Counterparties to financial derivative transactions where collateral was required to be exchanged included Bank of America N.A., Barclays Bank plc, BNP Paribas, Bank of New York Mellon, Citibank NA, Deutsche Bank AG, HSBC, JPMorgan Chase Bank, Morgan Stanley, Royal Bank of Canada, Standard Chartered Bank, State Street Bank, StoneX Financial Inc, Toronto Dominion Bank and UBS AG.

As of 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024, the collateral pledged or received by the Funds for financial derivative instrument transactions, including margin cash was:

12. Related and Connected Parties Transactions.

Parties are related if one can control or exercise significant influence over the other in making financial or operational decisions or is a member of a group which provides key management personnel services. The Company's directors and Manager are considered related parties. The Investment Managers or affiliates of the Manager, as well as any sub-investment manager or their delegate, and associated or group company of the Manager, are considered connected parties.

Manager. Vanguard Group (Ireland) Limited is the Funds' Manager and acts as a principal in respect of all transactions of shares in the Funds. For its services, the Manager receives a fixed single fee per share class (the "Management Fees") calculated on a daily basis and paid monthly. Out of the fees received, the Manager pays for any sub-advisers, as well as the costs of administration including audit, depositary, legal, registration and regulatory fees associated with the Funds. As a result, the Manager anticipates that the ongoing charges figure ("OCF") of each share class will closely track the Management Fees. In the event that the costs and expenses of any Fund exceed the OCF, the Manager will be responsible for discharging any excess out of its own assets. The Manager, in its sole discretion, may voluntarily waive all or part of its fee, and any such waiver could be discontinued at any time and without notice.

Any amounts due from or to the Manager at the end of the period are disclosed in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. Amounts earned by the Manager in respect to fees for the period are disclosed in the Statement of Operations.

15. Contingent Liabilities.

There were no contingent liabilities as at 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024.

16. Segregated Liabilities.

Each Fund is treated as bearing its own liabilities.

17. Fair Value Hierarchy.

Financial instruments are measured at fair value using a three-level hierarchy. Instruments are categorised in their entirety based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Assessing the significance and observability of a particular input requires significant judgement specific to an asset or liability. Inputs are considered to be observable when they are readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

Level 1—Quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2—Other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.).

Level 3—Significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions used to determine the fair value of investments).

The following tables provide an analysis within the fair value hierarchy of financial assets and liabilities, measured at fair value at 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024:
